Hector Fontanez Place/Bronx

Local Law 85
November 10, 1992

Int. No. 563

To approve and adopt a local law in relation to a street name, Hector Fontanez Place, Borough of The Bronx.

This legislation would add, through the posting of an additional sign, the name Hector Fontanez Place to Laconia Avenue between East 227th Street and East 230th Street in The Bronx.

Hector Fontanez was born in Puerto Rico. When he was only five years old, he moved to The Bronx with his mother and his brother, and settled permanently in that borough. He attended P.S. 61 in Crotona Park, Herman Ridder Junior High School 98 on Boston Road, and Adlai Stevenson High School on Lafayette Avenue.

Hector Fontanez became a police officer on July 15, 1986 and served in the 47th precinct following completion of his Police Academy training. On September 12, 1992, six years after he joined the Police Department, Police Officer Fontanez was tragically murdered in the line of duty.

Police Officer Fontanez is missed by all who knew him. It would be a very fitting tribute to this slain officer who unselfishly sacrificed his life in the protection of his community to add the name "Hector Fontanez Place" to Laconia Avenue between East 229th Street and East 230th Street in The Bronx, where the 47th Precinct, the precinct in which Police Officer Fontanez served, is located.

Accordingly, your Committee recommends its adoption.
